Kiki Karpen, executive director of the Community Fund accepts a check from Tom Dickson, vice president, and Marion Schmeelk Kirkman, market executive, of U.S. Trust, Bank of America Private Wealth Management.

The Community Fund of Darien received a corporate contribution of $1,000 from Bank of America for its 2010-11 Campaign.

Celebrating its 60th Anniversary, the Community Fund raises money through donations from residents and businesses every year to help agencies that meet a broad spectrum of human service needs.

This year, the Community Fund is distributing over $750,000 to more than 30 agencies serving Darien, Norwalk and Stamford including the Shelter for the Homeless, Child Guidance Center, STAR Lighting the Way, AmeriCares Free Clinic in Norwalk, St. Luke's LifeWorks and Domus. In addition, the fund provides small and emergency grants as well as funding initiatives such as Thriving Youth: Creating Community.
